GRANDSTAND CONTRACT WILL BE LET DURING COMING WEEK

SEN. GLASS MAKES PUBLIC HIS IDEA OF DEM. PLATFORM

Will Claim All Credit for Reduction of Taxes; Favors Harding World Court Plus the League.

G. O. P. CONDEMNED

By H. K. REYNOLDS
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent.

Washington, June 13—The first definite indications as to what the Democratic platform this year will contain were given here today when Senator Carter Glass, of Virginia, whose personally written platform was adopted by the Democrats in 1920 made public a draft of the resolutions which he will present to the forthcoming Democratic National Convention in New York.

Senator Glass' platform already has been adopted, as it was four years ago by the Democratic State Convention with instructions to carry it before the National Convention.

The platform voices harsh condemnation of not only former Republican officials, whose administration of governmental affairs came under the eye of Senate investigators, but condemned President Coolidge for the attitude taken in his letter to the Senate challenging the right of that body to continue with its investigation of Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, and the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

"We arraign the Republican party," the platform declares, "for intercepting at every step the due process of inquiry into official delinquencies and for its persistent attempts, executive and legislative, to impede, if not entirely to frustrate, the investigations to which, in the begining, Republican leaders assented, but what later they regarded with dismay.'

Direct reference was made to the forcing of Edwin Denby and Harry M. Daugherty out of the cabinet and there were allusions, all in sharp, biting phrases, to the Naval oil leases and the Veterans Bureau inquiry, involving Col. Charles R. Forbes.

"Never before in the history of the country," says the platform, "was the spectacle presented of a department of the Federal Government, in conjunction with the executive offices of a political party attempting through the forms of law and by subornation of perjury to blackmail committees of the United States Senate into silence by deliberately seeking to despoil reputations of their aggressive members.

"Touching recent investigations at Washington, we reprehend the committees revealed and regret that executive and judicial intervention suggests a rational suspicion that there yet may be crimes concealed."

Full credit was claimed for the Democrats in Congress for this year's Federal Tax reduction.

"It was a Democratic tax bill which was enacted into law," the tax revision plank declares, "and not the inequitable, reacting measure proposed by the Republican administration. It was a Democratic tax measure, benefitting more directly six million taxpayers which became the law, and not a Republican tax bill, benefitting more directly six thousand taxpayers."

The platform contains the usual "tariff for revenue only" plank and blames the Fordney—McCumber Tariff Act for many of the ills of the farmer. The efforts of the Republican administration to aid the agriculture industry were described as 'Quackery.'

The slogan "America first," brought into prominence by the late President Harding, was declared to be the property of no single political party, and this was followed by a pledge to support the Harding—Hughes—Coolidge World Court plan, plus American entrance into the League of Nations.

YESTERDAY'S MILLION DOLLAR MAIL ROBBERY NEAR SOLUTION; THREE ARE ARRESTED AND MUCH LOOT RECOVERED

Chicago, June 14 (INS.)—Three arrests early today were followed by Captain of detectives William Schoemaker that solution of Thursday night's million dollar mail robbery shall be in hand before night.

J. H. Wayne, wounded in the jaw, chest and right arm and with his body scored as if by a volled of shotgun slugs, was held under heavy guard in a ward in the County Hospital. He said he was shot by a Margaret Ray, believed to be the woman police held at an outlying precinct station. J. Mahoney, said to be an aviator, was arrested at the Chicago address given by Wayne.

Officers also stated that with the three arrests practically half of the loot taken in the gigantic robbery had been recovered and that arrests of the gang and recovery of the remainder of the loot were expected today.

The bandits, choosing only the most valuable mail sacks, got $100,000 cash and bonds valued between $1,000,000 and $1,500,00z.

Wayne was found on the roadside two miles south of Hammond, Ind., a distance from the robbery at Rondout that might easily have been traversed by the bandits between midnight and dawn yesterday.

Police search for the four automobile londs of bandits who held up the all-mail special on the Chicago, Milwalkee and St. Paul railroad has been concentrated on finding the wounded member of the gang, shot by his pals when he was mistaken for a belligerent member of the train crew.

He was known to be seriously wounded, as a large pool of blood marked the spot where he lay while the bandits loaded forty-two sacks of registered mail, containing federal reserve bank shipments to the north and west, into the waiting cors.

Two other men were arrested later in the morning. Walter McComb and Paul Wade were seized in McComb's flat. Pending the roundup of the gang, police were not inclined to divulge the information on which the arrests were made.

All those held were under close guard. None but police were permitted to enter the ward where Wayne lay at the county hospital.

That an airplane may have been used in a quick flight with the loot was believed, when police learned that one had landed, loaded and taken off near the robbery at dawn Friday.

The room where Wayne is under treatment at the county hospital was closely watched today. All beds other than Wayne's had been removed and heavy details of officers watched the prisoner.

"This man must be watched very carefully" Captain Schoemaker ordered. "We may expect anything from bandits who have the organization and money to put over this big a deal."

ENGINEERS DECLARE IT CAN BE BUILT IN TIME FOR THE FAIR

Promoters Deserve Lots of Credit For Standing Back of Much Needed Improvement to Park.

WILL BE A BEAUTY

The contract for the big steel and concrete grandstand at the Clearfield Park will be let the coming week, according to the plans of the park directors having the matter in charge. The engineering firm which prepared the plans and will have charge of the erection of the stand has given them until June 20th to get everything in shape and will guarantee the completion of the big stand within 90 days from that date, which will make the grandstand available for patrons of Clearfield County's Biggest Fair, which will open Tuesday, September 23d.

The stand will likely be put up by contractors who specialize in that line of construction, while a lot of the preliminary work such as the laying of 600 feet of water line and the necessary sewer, together with the plumbing and likely the concrete work will be done locally.

The big stand, which will be 210 feet long and a double decker, will be the last word in grandstand construction and is being designed and built under the direction of the engineering concern which built the Yale bowl, the Yankee stadium and many other big outdoor amusement places throughout the country.

In addition to possessing all the modern conveniences and advantages, the lower or ground floor will be concreted and utilized for the different concessions heretofore housed in the wooden stands located along the main driveway through the park, which will mean the elimination of these unsightly wooden shacks in the centre of the grounds and make that much more space available for fair patrons.

The new stand will be located on the site of the present old frame building, the upper end being located about fifty feet nearer the Park entrance than the present structure. It will set back farther from the track, allowing an 18-foot paddock in front, and will therefore extend out within 15 or 20 feet of the driveway in front of the exhibition building.

The building will be one of fireproof construction throughout and its magnificence will be a surprise to fair patrons when finally completed.

The Park directors who are responsible for the new stand, who have worked so hard the past five of six years to make the Park the asset to Clearfield it is, are highly gratified over the splendid manner in which our people responded to their appeal for subscriptions to the grandstand bond fund. This very generous response was especially gratifying to them because it demonstrated the people were pleased with what they had already accomplished and were ready to back their business judgment in this case with their good hard money.

The financing of the grandstand was a typical Clearfield action. Before soliciting subscriptions 12 of our leading business men and firms underwrote the project by obligating themselves for $5,000 each, because of the urgent necessity for the new stand. The people responding to the appeal for subscriptions to the fund were so prompt and so generous that no one man will have more than $1200 invested in these grandstand bonds, which is very gratifying to everybody concerned. The bonds will return a guaranteed 6 per cent investment and the guarantors or those underwriting the project are and will continue to apportion bonds to those desiring to invest in same in order to popularize the proposition by getting as many bondholders as care to invest in this community asset.

EIGHT INJURED WHEN AUTO PLOUGHS WAY THROUGH K. OF P. PARADERS AT NEW CASTLE; ALL OF THEM CHILDREN

New Castle, Penna., June 14 (INS.)—Eight persons are in a hospital here today suffering serious injury when a driver lost control of his automobile last night and ploughed through a Knights of Pythias parade. About a score more suffered minor hurts. All those hurt were marchers except two boys who were watching the paradc.

R. I. Merirmon, General Secretary of the local Y. M. C. A. drove the machine and he said when he attempted to stop the car the brakes failed to work. The car crashed into the curb of a sidewalk and was wrecked after breaking up the parade, it is said. Merrimon and Mrs. Merriman who were in the machine were not injured.

CAUSE OF BLAST ON THE MISSISSIPPI MAY EVER BE A MYSTERY

Los Angeles, June 14 (INS.)—Cause of the explosioh and fire aboard the U. S. S. Mississipp which killed forty-eight blue jackets and injured scores probably will remain forever a mystery.

That was the opinion of navy officials today as the naval board of inquiry called to investigate the tragedy contnued its hearings.

As at the first sitting of officers not a shred of testimony was obtained at the second sitting to throw light on the cause of the accident.

Capt W D. Brotherton, grief stricken commander of the ship, whose story of the explosion and the following tragedy shocked the inquiry board, was expected to be recalled for further questioning today.

"They all did their duty and I have nothing but praise for my men," Captain Brotherton half sobbed.

ANOTHER GRAMPIAN CHILD IS SERIOUSLY HURT BY AN AUTO

Venna Elizabeth, the little two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Williams, of Grampian, was run down and painfully injured on the main street of that town last evening about 5 o'clock by an automobile driven by Emil Johnson, of Mt. Jewett, Pa.

The child was on the opposite side of the street from her home and started to cross the street as a car traveling north came along. The driver seeing the child ahead of him sounded his horn, which startled the little one and after hesitating a moment she darted out ahead of this car and ran directly in front of the car driven by Mr. Johnson.

She was struck and knocked down. It is not known whether the car ran over her or not, but when picked up she was found to have both her thighs broken. The little victim of the accident was placed in a car and brought to the Rowles hospital where the fractures were reduced and where she is now resting satisfactorily.

STRONG ARM COLLECTOR COMES TO GRIEF

The residents of the Lobel flats in the Nevling block on Third street were treated to a sort of monkey and parrot time at an early hour Thursday morning, when Wallace Merrow, of Market street invaded the place and attempted to have Aaron Lobel return to him $80 which he alleges he was separated from in Lobel's store Wednesday evening.

Merrow, it appears, was somewhat or considerably under the influence of liquor, and Lobel alleges that Merrow purchased $80 worth of clothing and gents furnishings for John Klin, who came into the store with him.

When Merrow could not get his money back he stormed Lobel's living rooms over the store and is alleged to have fired a shot or two from a revolver into the door. Policeman Woolridge appeared upon the scene at this juncture and arrested the crazed man and put him in the lockup. He paid a borough fine Thursday noon and has since been under medical treatment.

5 DAY WEEK WITH NO VACATIONS IS NEW ORDER IN THE FORD FACTORIES

Detroit, Mich., June 14. (INS.)—Office employes and executives of the Ford Motor Company will go without their customary two weeks' vacation this year under an order that went into effect today.

About 23,000 men and women are affected.

Beginning today, the Ford offices are to go on a five-day a week schedule.

For the next 12 weeks these Saturdays off for the office employes are to be in lieu of the summer vacation each has received in the past, there being 12 working days in a two week vacation.

If the five-day week is continued in force, after the end of 12 weeks, the pay of the employe is to be cut in proportion, they were notified.

Six weeks or so ago, the factory employes were put on a five-day basis. They have never been given vacations.

Henry Ford's view, as expressed by some of the executives is that if the factories can accomplish all the required production in five days a week, it should not take longer than that for the office personnel to supervise production.

Ford has also many times expressed the view that five days a week is enough for any one to labor.

PICKING A TEAM TO BEAT CAL. AND CHAS. IS POPULAR PASTIME

By A. C. HAYWARD

Washington, June 14—Democratic plate makers among the Congressmen remaining in Washington are busy framing combinations that should prove formidable in vote getting and state carrying against the Coolidge-Dawes ticket. Among the suggestions are:

Samuel M. Ralston, Indiana; and Royal Copeland, New York.

John W. Davis, West Virginia; and Charles Bryan, Nebraska.

William G. McAdoo, Calif., and Carter Glass, Virginia.

Al Smith, New York; Charles Bryan, Nebraska, or Atlee Pomerene, Ohic.

Oscar Underwood, Alabama; William E. Sweet, Colorado.

Democratic congerssional leaders will play an important part in the forthcoming convention at Madison Square Garden. They will hold office in the convention or will head their state delegations..

Unlike their Republican colleagues, they will dominate instead of being regulated to obscure positions.

Finis G. Garrett, of Tennessee, Democratic leader of the House, Crisp, of Georgia, Oldfield, of Arkansas, Rayburn and Connally of Texas and the Tammany group will be in the thick of the fray.

Garrett and the others, except the Tammanyites, have remained here since the close of Congress. Garrett said today he would leave next week for New York City and would make his headquarters at the Prince George hotel.

Senator Pat Harrison, of Mississippi, is to be the convention keynoter. His speech has been completed. Senator Carter Glass has drafted a tentative platform which has been approved by the Democrats of Virginia for presentation to the resolution committee at New York.

So many Democratic Senotors and Congressmen are scheduled for participation in the convention that the roll call will have the familiar ring of the Senate and House.

The stage is set, also, for a discussion of the platform which will recall vividly the stirring scenes at invetigations of governmental officers all of which were pushed by Democrats.

Miriam Stage left this morning for Lewisburg to attend commencement exercises at Bucknell University.

More than 50,000 auto fans are expected to watch the race as ideal weather is predicted for the event.

After being banqueted last night by the local Shriners the racers held a special drivers' meeting when they drew for place and Ira Vail, in his Vail special drew the much-coveted position nearest the pole. The other entries, their positions and cars are as follows:

OUR NEED OF IODINE

For several generations the medical profession has held iodine in high regard as a medicine. In the treatment of certain chronic systemic disorders, it is almost indispensable, yet until recently no one had the slightest idea as to how or why the drug produced the observed effects. The improvement of patients to whom it was administered was often unequivocal and obvious; but in attempting to explain the action of the drug the physician had to fall back upon such meaningless terms as "blood-purifier," "alterative," and "obstruent."

In recent years, however, a clue has been gained to the manner of action of the mysterious agent, through the discovery that iodine in exceedingly small quantities is a normal constituent of the human body, and that the thyroid gland is the organ in which it is chiefly stored.

The normal functioning of the thyroid appears to be absolutely dependent upon its iodine supply, and the thyroid secretion has an important influence over every tissue and organ of the body. The medicinal administration of iodine may directly stimulate the action of the thyroid, and thereby improve the nutritional condition of the bodily organs.

The most direct and unequivocal evidence of an iodine shortage in the body is usually to be gained from examination of the thyroid gland itself, and consideration of the symptoms known to be associated with thyroid disturbance. Most laymen are familiar with the word "goiter," implying enlargement of the thyroid gland.

There are certain regions where goiter is peculiarly prevalent, and it was long supposed that the drinking water of such regions must contain some toxic property. Latterly, however, opinion has gained ground that the trouble is due not to anything present in the water, but to the absence of iodine. This theory has recently been put to an experimental test on a large scale through a survey conducted by the State of Michigan's Department of Health.

The results, as outlined in a preliminary report by the Health Commissioner, are exceedingly interesting. There appears to be the closest relation between the percentage of iodine in the water supply and the prevalence of goiter. Where iodine is present in sufficient quantity, goiter is rare; and as iodine decreases goiter increases proportionately.

It is reported that at Mount Clemens the water supply shows 25 parts per billion of iodine, and 26 per cent of the children have enlarged thyroids. At Romeo, only 12 miles away, the water shows no trace of iodine, and 50 per cent to 75 per cent of the children have enlarged thyroids. It is now possible to predict the results of thyroid examination by study of the chemist's report on the iodine content of the water. Goiters are, therefore, no longer necessary.

TWO FINE SHOWS HERE NEXT WEEK

Manager Hartman of the Driggs theatre has booked two unusually good attractions for his playhouse for the coming week in "Grumpy" and "The Eternal City."

"Grumpy" with Theodore Roberts, May McAvoy and Conrad Nagle in the stellar roles is the story of a gruff, hardboiled old man who under the crust has a heart that really is very, very soft towards a young couple whom he has seen fit to befriend. There is a very pretty love story running through the scenario and there are numerous exciting situations. "Grumpy" was the last picture made by Mr. Roberts before he started to portray the leading role in "The 10 Commandments."

"The Eternal City" is the Robert Fitzmaurice version of the famous novel by Hall Caine. It is brought down to modern times and the entire scenes were filmed in sunny Italy. The cast includes such shining lights as Bert Lytell, Barbara LaMarr, Lionel Barrymore, Richard Bennet and Montagu Love, who lone, would make a mighty fine picture out of an ordinary theme.

THE RETURN AND THE REBUILDING OF THE TEMPLE

LESSON TEXT—Ezra 1:1-11; 3:8-6:22.
GOLDEN TEXT—"Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God."—Isa. 40:1.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Building a House for God.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Love for God's House.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Rebuilding of the Temple.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Significance of the Return.

I. The Return From Captivity Predicted (Jer. 29:10-14).

It seems that false prophets were flourishing in Babylon, telling the people that they would speedily be restored to their own land. To counteract this the Lord moved Jeremiah to send a letter to the captives in Babylon (Jer. 29:1-9). In this letter he advised them to settle down and quietly pursue their regular callings of life and not to be led astray by false prophets.

1. The Length of the Captivity (v. 10). Their coming back was to be "after seventy years." From Daniel 9:2 it is clear that seventy years means a definite time. It dates from the time when the first company was taken captive among which Daniel was found.

II. The Prediction of Captivity Fulfilled (Ezra 1:1-11).

1. The Proclamation of Cyrus (vv. 1-4). This was not by accident, but that the word of the Lord might be fulfilled (v. 1). God never forgets. What He has promised He will do. It was by divine initiation—the Lord stirred up the spirit of Cyrus. In his proclamation he ordered that all who desired should go back and build the house of the Lord God, and those who lacked this inclination should lend assistance by making gifts of silver, gold and beasts.

2. The Response to Cyrus' Proclamation (vv. 5, 6). The company which returned was largely made up of representatives of Judah and Benjamin.

3. Royal Favors (vv. 7-11). Cyrus brought forth the vessels of the house of the Lord which Nebuchadnezzar had carried away from Jerusalem and placed in the house of his gods. This, no doubt, greatly encouraged the Jews, for there were 5,400 vessels returned.

III. The Temple Rebuilt (Ezra 3:8-6:15).

1. The Foundation Laid. This was an auspicious occasion and was celebrated with impressive ceremonies.

(1) The priests in their apparel (v. 10). The priests' garments symbolized their consecration to the Lord's service.

(2) The priests with trumpets (v. 10). These trumpets were made of silver and were used in calling the people together.

(3) The Levites with symbols (v. 10). These were to furnish the instrumental music of the sanctuary, in accordance with the arrangements made by David (I Chron. 15:16-21).

(4) They sang together by course (v. 11). This means that they sang to one another responsively. The one company sang, "The Lord is good." The other responded, "For his mercy endureth forever."

(5) Mingled weeping and shouting (vv. 12, 13). Some of the older men, who had seen the magnificent and glorious temple of Solomon, which had been destroyed, wept much when they saw how far short the present foundations came from the former temple.

2. The Building Hindered (Ezra 4). The leading adversaries were the Samaritans, a mongrel people, the offspring of the poor Jews who were left in Palestine and the foreign people who were sent into Palestine after the Jews were taken captive.

(1) An unintelligent pessimism (Ezra 3:13). Under the circumstances this was a glorious beginning and gave promise of great things for the future. Therefore it was no credit to the priests, Levites and chief of the fathers to mar this occasion with their weeping.

(2) Worldly compromise (Ezra 4:2, 3). They said, "Let us build with you, for we seek your God." This is Satan's most common and effective method today.

(3) Open opposition by the world (Ezra 4:4-24). When refused a part in the work open opposition was resorted to.

3. The Temple Finished (Ezra 5:1-6; 6:15). Through the ministry of the Prophets Haggai and Zechariah the people were encouraged to resume the work of building the temple.

IV. The Temple Dedicated (Ezra 6:16-22).

The people were united in this building program and came together upon its completion and solemnly dedicated it to God.

Told of John Burroughs.

John Burroughs, the naturalist, was not interested in nature's larger aspects. Geysers and volcanoes bored him. His one exception was the Grand Canyon of the Colorado, which he called "the Divine Abyss." Despite his intentness on study when a boy, Burroughs was fond of girls and kept a systematic record of his engagements with them, writers on his life say.

Plenty of Milk Brings Physical And Mental Health

With every necessary dietary element in milk to bring your bodily and mental standard up to a much greater efficiency, you will find that after you have placed milk among the main articles of your menu, you are feeling a great uplift.

Nature decreed that milk should be the first food for most animals and all mankind. Nature, in her all-wise providence, knew that her foresight in providing such a food as milk, which contains every vital food element, would have a food ready for the infancy that would give the young a wonderful start in life.

And Nature has continued to provide this wonderful food, milk, all down thru time to the present. We have this food for you and can increase the amount we serve to your home every morning. If you will start drinking more milk or use more milk in your cooking, you will soon notice you are feeling better in body and mind.

It's what Oakland gives for $995 that counts

Bear these facts in mind in choosing a car:

Here are the advantages Oakland offers:

Be sure that the engine in the car you choose incorporates the very latest design and construction.	1	Oakland's engine is the last word in advanced design. Automotive engineers praise its construction.
Be sure you get the latest braking system. Four-wheel brakes are safer. Don't buy a car without them.	2	The Oakland Six has four-wheel brakes at no added cost. They are sound in principle and practice.
Ordinary body finishes are perishable and easily marred. Get the facts about Oakland's new finish.	3	Oakland alone, in its class, has a special new finish which will not check nor lose its lustre.
Observe whether driving controls are convenient. Compare other cars with Oakland in this respect.	4	Oakland's controls—all of them except gear shift—are on the steering wheel; an exclusive feature.
The tendency is toward a more substantial top for open cars. Examine cars with this point in mind.	5	Everyone likes Oakland's permanent top. Curtains fit better and glass enclosures can be added.
Although disc steel wheels are superior, most builders in this class make you pay extra for them.	6	All True Blue Oaklands have disc steel wheels at no extra cost. They are better looking and safer.
Note the body design and workmanship of cars in this class. Are bodies attractive and substantial?	7	Oakland's seven distinctive bodies are Fisher-built. Everyone comments on their smart appearance.

The True Blue Oakland is built and priced to be the leading value in its field.

THE FLAG ON FLAG DAY

Flag Day, June 14th, is not a legal holiday, but American citizens are paying more attention to it in recent years than they did formerly. It might be well, therefore, to observe the day not merely by hanging out flags on front porches, but also by thinking over the pledge to the flag and by learning and practicing the code covering its proper civil usage.

Almost any school child can tell his forgetful parents the pledge to the flag, but the rules for civil display are not so generally known. The code was adopted in 1923. It requires that the flag of the United States should not be dipped to any person or thing; that it should not be displayed with the Union down except as a signal of distress; that no other flag or pennant should be placed above or to the right of it; that it should not be allowed to touch the ground or to trail in the water.

Furthermore, it should not be used as drapery—red, white and blue bunting is suitable for that purpose. The flag should not be festooned in such a way that it can be easily torn. It should not be draped over the hood, top or sides of a vehicle, or of a railroad train or boat. When displayed on such a vehicle or used on a float in a parade it should be properly affixed on a staff. It should never be spread over a table, over benches or backs of chairs, or used as a ceiling covering. It should never be used as a portion of a costume or athletic uniform, and should not be embroidered on cushions or handkerchiefs, or printed on paper napkins or on advertising material. Lettering should never be placed on the flag. The flag should be protected as much as possible from soiling or damage.

To some persons this may seem like a lot of fussiness, yet if the flag has any significance to the average citizen, it should be treated with respect and dignity. And certainly the flag is beautiful floating free from a staff. There is plenty of bunting in the world for all other purposes.

THE FRENCH UPSET

France is always having a crisis of some kind, and America has come to be inclined to think that another one doesn't matter much, because this just now is real. Not content with forcing Premier Poincare to resign, the insurgents in the French Parliament have forced President Millerand to resign. Nothing of the kind ever happened before.

It is very much as if our own Congress, being at odds with the Executive, should compel the President to resign before the expiration of his term. Or it is as if the British Parliament, balked by the interference of the Crown in legislation, should succeed the King to abdicate. The French President partakes of the qualities of both the American President and the British King. He is elected for a term of years, but he is regarded, like the ruler of a constitutional monarchy, as superior to parties and a bridge between changing administrations.

It was contrary to the spirit, at least, of the French Constitution to demand President Millerand's resignation. But his critics insist that he had made such action necessary by disobeying the Constitution and meddling with party politics.

Millerand's offense was playing party politics and upholding Poincare's policies. The liberals, having got rid of the premier found they could make no progress without also getting rid of the president, because when Millerand appointed a new premier to frame a new cabinet he chose a man of the Poincare type.

All this comes home to Americans. It seems to mean that the warlike, militaristic Poincare party is repudiated for good; that France is tired of costly armament and jingo oratory and eternal feud with Germany, and is determined under the leadership of Edouard Herriot, a liberal, to make an honest effort at reparation settlement and restoration of France and Germany side by side and of Europe with them. The world has waited long for such action.

Progress Editorials for Women

NOT MERELY GASTRONOMIC

By FLORENCE DAVIES

Picnic time is here again. However long and late the winter chill lingers, there comes a day of blue skies and sunshine, when baskets are packed, little sweaters and rubbers are pulled on, and we go a-picnicking.

And what do we do on these rambles? Lug the baskets, the extra scarfs and cushions and umbrellas, give a preliminary sandwich to each child and think how good Susie's cake and Martha's potato salad are going to taste at the end of the walk. We rather pride ourselves on the big appetites we are getting in 'this glorious air." Don't we?

No harm in that, unless that is all that the outing means. A nature lover pleading for the training of children in the love and knowledge of the outdoor world, said to a big audience of mothers and grandmothers the other day, "Why should our chief sensation at a picnic be gastronomic?"

He would have all the birds named "without a gun" as Emerson puts it. The wild rose loved and left on its talk as the same poet urged. Every foot of a walk, spring, summer and autumn, when the picnic claims us, should be full of interest because of the "wonder and beauty of common things."

Wild flowers and ferns dragged up by the roots and left to wither, eggs plundered from songbirds' nests, tiny creatures frightened away from the haunts of men, will be impossible to any child who is taken early and taught to reverence nature, this speaker argued.

Nor are any of us too old to learn what he would have the kindergartners taught. The great book of outdoors, the miracle of the stars, the wonder of the chattering brook are all interpreted by the poets, from whom he quoted in his talk, but how much more the beautiful lines will mean to us, young and old, if we have had our eyes opened to all that may see.

"Put nature study in its right place in the schools," was the plea that this particular speaker from whom we have quoted, made to the hundreds of women in his audience. "If the school board tells you there isn't time or isn't money enough, tell them that a child has much right to be taught how to interpret a road as how to interpret a book."

CHILDREN'S DAY PAGEANT AT WEST SIDE M. E. CHURCH

Tomorrow will be observed as Children's Day at the West Side M. E. tabernacle, when the children of the Sunday school will present the pageant "The Secret Whispered To Children." Owing to the memorial service for the trainmen in the evening, the children's exercises will be given at the morning service, immediately following a short Sunday school session.

The natural beauty of the pageant to be presented will be greatly augmented by the many colorful costumes prepared by the committe in charge, and these with the well trained performance of the children promise to make one of the most satisfactory and inspiring Children's Day presentations ever given at West Side.

School Children's Coloring Contest---224 Prizes

$170 in Cash 160 Theatre Tickets --- 10 Each Week

IT IS EASY TO WIN---THERE ARE 14 PRIZES EACH WEEK

Little Artists, here is a page that will interest you. It offers an opportunity to show your ability and to use your artistic "knack" to win prizes. It's lots of fun, and there is money in it besides.

Color the Advertisements on This Page the Way They Ought to Be

Prizes will be awarded each week to those who reproduce the colors of all the original labels, packages, trade-marks or designs on this page most carefully, faithfully and neatly. The designs which are black and white reproductions of original labels, packages, trade-marks and designs, are to be colored in the most artistic manner and judging will be done on this basis, together with the neatness of the work. The coloring may be done either in water colors or crayons. This contest is open to school children everywhere. PRIZES WILL BE AWARDED EACH WEEK AS FOLLOWS:

FIRST PRIZE, $5.00; SECOND PRIZE, $3.00; THIRD PRIZE, $1.00; FOURTH PRIZE, $1.00.

The next ten in order of merit will receive a ticket to the Liberty theatre for Saturday afternoon.

This contest will run for 16 weeks. At the close an additional prize of $10.00 will be awarded the child turning in the best page during this period.

IMPORTANT! All designs on this page must be colored and the entire page sent in. Where original labels and trade marks appear, prizes will be awarded for the efforts that are nearest like the originals.

All the merchandise bearing labels and trade-marks appearing on this page can be purchased in the stores you patronize. They are all high-class products in daily use in all families. You are familiar with most of them; if there are any you cannot color from memory, procure one of the packages and enter the contest. After you have colored the entire page, mail it to the "School Children's Contest," Clearfield Progress. All efforts must be in the Progress office on or before 6 p. m. the first Tuesday after the page is published. The week's prize winners will be announced the following Friday.

ASK YOUR PARENTS AND OLDER BROTHERS AND SISTERS TO HELP YOU. START TODAY.

You can have a jolly good time at it, improve your drawing ability and surely win one of the 224 prizes to be given for the work.

CLOSING SCHOOL EVENTS IN JUNIOR HIGH

Tense and deep was the interest on Thursday afternoon among the Juniors, when Principal Ross began the closing exercises. Miss Frank had a list of songs, which were taken up with a gusto and interest that indicated delight in music and in the selections. The last song was "MacGregor Had a Farm," which the boys and girls put through with wonderful effect.

Then came the presentation of the medals from the American Legion, through Commander J. Mitchell Chase, who in well chosen words spoke of the significance of the award, the medals themselves. For all around conduct, popularity and manliness the medals were granted to Robert Lutz, Oscar Shaffner, Max Hall and Robert Zeigler.

Then came a surprise. The local chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution donated a ten dollar gold piece for the scholar in the eighth grade who had the highest markings in history. The figures are very close and the winner is first by only seven points in the year. Rella Wilkins took the prize with 1382 points; honorable mention was made of John Marshall with 1375, and Aline Callahan and John Trozale each 1373.

Interest was at its height, for the awards that MacGregor had arranged were next for announcement. The prizes for the most money earned and banked went to Betty Smith and Harold Hurd; for the most money banked that was legally their own at and after banking awarded to Rose Pellerite and Walter Derrick, who had to his credit $136.50, which MacGregor pointed out represented the interest at 6 per cent in one year on $2,275.

The award of a prize for the essay that discussed "The Earnings of Saved Money," and was best written, was made by the committee to Mollie Stern.

After the cheer leaders had gotten the Juniors up to a pitch of hearty cheering, MacGregor led the school in a cheer that almost rocked the building.

Junior High scholars banked in 34 Wednesdays a total of $3,464.40, which is the interest earnings at 6 per cent in one year from $57,740.

One of the most marked features of the closing exercises was the spirit with which the boys and girls received the announcement of their fellow-scholars who took the prizes. Every one applauded with a heartiness that amazed the visitors. They clapped and cheered with such marked approval as to indicate that a fine spirit pervaded the school, a joyous congratulation as warm as would have been their own gratification had they been the fortunate Juniors.

Fourth Ward school had a notable record, little known in this community, for its attendance and banking. That school is presided over by Miss Ruth Williamson, who is fortunate in the co-operation of devoted teachers and assistants. The several grades contributed in 34 weeks a total banking amount of $2,837. And it holds the record of 100 per cent in banking—that is every Wednesday there is deposited something from every member of the entire school. Albert Barone banked $118.14 and holds the first place among the boys in the three highest grades. Among the girls Annie Guy made the highest record for the largest amount banked, $52.69. Each received a prize of a new crisp note of Uncle Sam's money, presented by MacGregor. The percentage of attendance for the term was 94. The tardies were only 144 out of 110,262 chances. Before the massed grades were dismissed they were given a blackboard drill in mastering these initial letters—H B D, which translated and explained mean: Habit is Bigger than Dollars saved.

BASEBALL DOPE

DuBois beat Philipsburg in a C. & C. League game Thursday afternoon the score being 7 to 0. Philipsburg makes an awful howl about the umpiring of Larry Meikle. The Philipsburg Journal says not only was the umpiring rotten, but Meikle showed his lack of judgment by rushing into the crowd and kicking one of the spectators who was razzing him.

The Osceola-Clearfield game scheduled for the Clearfield Park Friday afternoon had to be postponed because the grounds were too wet following Thursday night's rain.

DuBois now leads the league, with Clearfield second, Philipsburg third and Osceola occupying Connie Mack's place with a row of goose eggs in the won column.

Betty Gets First.

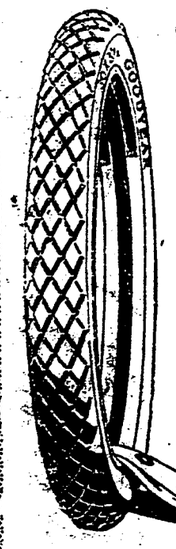

Betry was languishing in whatever she wanted, and knowing her fondness for pie her father often gave her his piece after she had eaten hers. On one such occasion a guest asked him if he did not like pie. Before he could answer Betty replied complacently "Oh, he likes it all right, but you see he likes me better'n pie."

ROMANCE OF THE ALMANAC.

An almanac was one of the first works upon which Gutenburg employed his new art of printing in 1457, but the first to be printed in England did not appear until about forty years later. It was called "The Sheapheard's Kalendar." After that date almanacs increased and multiplied, and began to include "omens and prognostications." One which is still preserred is calle "The Prognostycacion of Mayster John Tybault; of the influence of the moon; of peas and warre, and the revolucions of Kings and Princes." Local almanacs became popular in the Seventeenth century, says London Tit-Bits. One was printed for Birmingham in 1642 by Nathaniel Nye, "Practitioner of Astronomy." The preface declares that it is for "the faire and populous towne of Birmicham in Warwickshire, where the Pole is elevated above the horizon 52 degrees and 38 minutes." At first the Stationer's company had the privilege of printing all almanacs, but James I extended the privilege to the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge. It was not until 1834 that local printers were permitted to issue their own productions. Colored almanacs came in about 1865. They were single sheets at first, very crude and badly printed. But in about ten years they began to improve, and eventually really good pictures were bought by almanac-makers for reproduction. The "Almanach de Gotha" is 100 years old. In 1763, when first published, it had less than a hundred pages.

Prince Viggo of Denmark has formally renounced all claims of succession to the throne of that country in order to marry Miss Eleanor Margaret Green of New York; and the surprising feature of the incident is that the prince did not take this step at the behest of that element in the American government which objects to entangling alliances with foreign powers. Apparently the State department was not alarmed at the possibility that an American girl might become a queen in suspected Europe, says the Baltimore Sun. This is a new international policy, just as the message from the United States to Honduras shows that the administration is not above giving international advice which implies a warning. But perhaps it may seem to indicate that it has adopted a course which implies a warning. But perhaps the status of the two countries is to be taken into account. Denmark is a small nation and not so prominent in the councils of Europe as to involve the United States in trouble, even though an American were on the throne, and Honduras is too tiny to be dangerous in itself, no matter how much it might resent veiled orders from the United States.

According to a western scientist, development of motion pictures in color will make it possible to show simultaneously two dramas on one screen and to enable the spectators to see the picture preferred by furnishing them with glasses that will render the other invisible. Such a possibility stimulates the imagination. A showing of a knock-down-and-drag-out comedy along with a heavy tragedy would result in such a conflict of reactions by the audience that hard feeling would ensue, says the Washington Post. A woman sobbing over the latter would naturally resent roaring merriment from the next seat. Applause at the hero's triumphs in one picture when the deviltry of the villain in the other was drawing hisses would develop a variety of emotions. The double-geared movie, indeed, presents great possibilities.

The World war had a marked effect upon the bread grain consumption of some European countries as well as of the United States, says the United States Department of Agriculture. The standard of living in some countries has been lowered and cheaper foods substituted for wheat. Wheat has been conserved by "long milling," mixing, and by feeding less to live stock. In selling surplus wheat American farmers are compelled to meet increasingly keen competition in a foreign market where the demand has decreased, it is pointed out.

Automobiles parked illegally may be serious obstacles in the way of firemen and may be the indirect cause of deaths in burning buildings. Careful and fair-minded drivers will think of this hazard before they leave their machines contrary to law, even though they feel certain the police will not disturb them.

Raymond Ferguson, who has been ill at the home of his mother, Mrs. Reed Bloom for some time, is not improving as rapidly as his family and friends could wish.

Reports coming in from the result of Thursday's wind and hail storm and the damage caused in its path is something to be reckoned with. Up in the Bloomington and Turkey Hill sections the damage done was even far greater than was done in this neighborhood. Rye and wheat fields were destroyed entirely and in many homes windows in an entire side of a house were broken. At Grampian very little hail fell and no damage to amount to anything was reported. Two miles east of Curwensville there was no hail but plenty of rain. The storm came from the northwest and took an almost direct southerly direction, and was not over a quarter of a mile in width. Old timers aver that never during their long life in these mountains have they seen such large stones fall, but Porter Pyles, who was up in the Madera country during the storm, alleges that hail stones as large as a baseball fell and demolished everything over the section in which it passed.

Miss Jeanette Weber, a Youngstown young lady and a niece of Miss Lottie Bixler, arrived in Curwensville yesterday by motor and will spend a week in town with her aunt. The young lady was a former student in this place.

The Yellow Dogs held quite an interesting session in the opera house Thursday evening, and after a large class of mongrels had been instructed in the ways of dogdom, some important business matters were taken up and discussed; the most important of which were the progress of the building out at the park and scenting along the trail as to having a big Labor Day in Curwensville again this year. Last year the Yellow Dogs put over the biggest entertainment ever held in Curwensville. The membership of this fraternal organization now numbers over 600, and includes the best citizens of this town, Clearfield, DuBois, Glen Richey, Boardman, Bloomington and a number of other towns within a radius of 25 miles.

The ladies of the Pocahontas organization held a most interesting session Thursday evening. Leave it to the ladies to have an edifying entertainment at all of their lodge gatherings.

The following letter was received by the Principal of our schools:

"Dear Sir: While the Yellow Dogs are doing a great deal to our beautiful park, do you think in some way you could get a "Merry-Go-Round and have it here by the 4th and run it until Labor Day and I bet you will be surprised to no that it will all most paid for it self by then put in the ball park and run it on sat & once or twice tho the week bring it before the next meeting please as we will always our as we can't have a carnival and it should have something. ans by Progress. The Kids."

The Principal of the Schools gives us the following answer:

"My Dear Children: Your post card comes to me as a call from the wilderness, or as an S. O. S. call from the air. I know you need something to help make you happy during the long summer. You deserve to be happy and I believe you are happy, but we never get quite enough of the happiness of this life so we continually want more. I do not blame you for this. The Yellow Dogs, with the canteen of human sustenance around their necks, are now six hundred strong and are running hither and yon gathering material for the Kennel in Irvin Park which is intended to give pleasure to thousands After this Kennel is completed and turned over to the Council of Curwensville, they might then take up your "Merry-Go-Round" idea and try to work it out. You deserve every consideration and I thank you for your suggestion in the above letter.

Your Friend,
Grant Norris.

NO IMPROVEMENT IN SOFT COAL FIELDS IS TO BE EXPECTED

Production Drops From 11.16 Per Cent. in 1916 to 8.44 Per Cent for First Five Months of This Year.

No improvement in business in the Central Pennsylvania coal fields, where the percentage of the total coal production in the United States has dropped from 11.16 per cent, in 1916 to 8.44 per cent, for the first five months of the current year, is looked for by the Central Pennsylvania Coal Producer's Association so long as the present business depression continues.

The wage policy in the union fields of this district, it is declared in a statement from association headquarters here yesterday is bringing about conditions which are predicted "by all observers" from the beginning of the negotiations last year between miners and operators of the district, which negotiations resulted in the signing of the present three-year wage agreement.

600 Mines Idle

Out of 1,000 mines in the Central Pennsylvania fields, 600 are totally idle, it is said, while the remaining 400 are working part time only. All non-union fields have reduced wages, the statement further avers, and practically all have reduced their scale to the November, 1917, rate. Some are said to have gone even below this level.

"The United Mine Workers of America," reads the statement, in part, "are rapidly losing what little hold they do have in West Virginia. The Kanawha field is now practically non-union. The other remaining union field is the West Virginia, the Fairmont district, is in a worse situation from a working standpoint than is Central Pennsylvania, larger percentage of their capacity to produce is closed down. The situation in this field, like in our own, is becoming intolerable.

"The no-union fields are fixing the standard of wages in the bituminous mining industry at this time. The United Workers of America are rapidly losing their power to control the wage standards.

"If the United Mine Workers would maintain a fair and stable wage situation in the bituminous mining industry, they must act quickly. Their present policy is a mistaken one. This must be obvious to all. This being the case, they must change their policy for the preservation of the union. The sooner such action is taken, the easier it will be to accomplish."

Total Coal Production

In 1916, figures released by the association show, the total coal production in the country amounted to 502,519,682 tons, of which Central Pennsylvania produced 56,063,952 tons or 11.16 per cent. Since then the percentage credited the local field has steadily declined, reaching the ebb point during the month of January, this year, when Central Pennsylvania produced only 7.84 of the 49,952,400 tons of coal mined in the United States.

An even trend has been maintained throughout the months of January, February, March, April and May, the last month evidencing a more encouraging production than any of the four preceeding. The total production in the United States for the five months period reached 196,912,400 tons. Central Pennsylvania's share was 16,619,208 tons, or 8.44 per cent.

By month, the percentage of production for the local field, as compared with the total for the country thus far for 1924, is shown in the following tabulation:

	United States	Central Penna.	Pct.
Jan.	49,952,400	3,914,082	7.84
Feb.	45,702,667	3,796,921	8.31
March	40,470,533	3,584,301	8.86
April	29,352,800	2,434,241	8.29
May	31,434,000	2,889,663	9.19

A Frog Concert.

As I sat on the piazza that evening, I noticed first an ominous absence of bird voices, and next the presence of a numerous frog population about the little lake close by. The musical performances of these voluble reptiles began about sunset and increased in volume and power till nothing else could be heard. If all the thrushes in the state had assembled in that spot and sung their loudest, they could not have been heard above the awful volume of frog voices.—Olive Thorne Miller.

WOODLAND BOOSTERS MEET IN THE M. E. CHURCH SOCIAL ROOM

Another enthusiastic meeting of the Woodland Boosters was held last Monday night in the M. E. Church social room. Excellent reports were given by various committees showing that the club is living up to its usual methods of work. The question of parking for the town was discussed at length and, it is hoped that this evil will soon be remedied. The club also went on record as favoring the invitation to be a part in the parade at Clearfield on the 4th. From the vim of the Committee appointed the rest of the paradors will have to step some to outshine the work and plans of this young hustling club. Mr. Greenfield of Philipsburg and M. [illegible] Overly of Clearfield were the speakers of the evening. The former stressed the value of Boy Scout work in an interesting address. The latter dwelt on Red Cross activities in an able manner that illumed the mind of the club and also brought forth applause. Woodland Booster Club seems to be in the same fix as the lad who started to slide on an ice-covered hill. He could not stop until he reached the bottom. This club cannot stop until it has reached the goal of making Woodland a still greater and better Woodland.

Name of Labrador.

It is believed that Labrador was named because Portuguese explorers thought the natives would make good laborers, or because of the labor required to make a living there. The name is connected with the old Spanish name for labor. The Labrador coast was discovered in the Tenth century by Leif, the Norseman, but no explorations were made. It was again discovered in 1497 by John Cabot. Explorations and settlements were made and the peninsula was named.

John of Leyden

In 1534 Johann Bockelson, popularly called John of Leyden, established the kingdom of Zion in the city of Muenster, Westphalia, Germany, and had himself crowned king. His fanaticism finally brought him imprisonment and death.

Burns Healed Without Leaving A Scar

My sister was burned last winter when putting coal oil on a deadened fire and the flames burst out into her face. We used nothing but San Cura and didn't even have a physician and in almost an incredible short time her face was perfectly healed without a scar. It is the finest thing for burns that I have ever seen. Have also used it for other things. Just lately an infected toe and immediately it was healed—Hattie S. Pitts, 18 Iowa Circle, Washington, D. C. Try San Cura Ointment for Old Sores, Piles, Eczema Cuts, Bruises and Chapped Skin. It gives quick relief, soothes the pain and draws out poison, or money back. 30c and 60c. Try San Cura Soap for banishing Blackheads, Pimples and clearing the complexion. 25 cents at Ralph T. Hunter's Drug Store.

Hupmobile

Drive Shaft and Pinion one piece, drop-forged, 3½ per cent nickel steel, case-hardened and double heat-treated, unusually heavy, with two chrome nickel steel taper roller bearings. Common construction calls for only ordinary carbon steel — with merely case-hardened bearings.

Vital Factors

That Make A Car Cost Less to Keep

Everyone knows what Hupmobile is and what it does—the finer construction of Hupmobile parts is one of the vital reasons why it is what it is and does what it does.

Seldom has greater help been given the buyer than the Hupmobile Parts Displays—one of which is a feature in our salesroom.

They show the finer, costlier practices of Hupmobile manufacturing—and you can contrast with them the lesser practices which frequently obtain.

Study these parts—read how finely they are built—then read, in the red type, what the common practice is. Know whether your next car is a product of the highest grade construction, or the other kind.
